

Bruce: The most exciting thing for me at Comcast is the ability to work in a large organization, ah with all the resources and support that's available.

Bola: People I work with are, you know, really hard workers. They're extremely smart people and they help me, you know, everyday to challenge myself and to learn.

Chase: I would say the most common trait amongst Comcast Employees that I work with is perseverance.

Jackie: I do feel like I'm constantly learning here between the free courses that are, um, offered through Comcast University. The fact that I can go back to school, that Comcast promotes education. I can be reimbursed if I decided to, to go back.

Ngoc: What excites me most is the fact that there's a lot of chances for career growth and, um, on the team itself we're pretty much a very rapidly growing team.

Mala: I started off at Comcast as a project manager and, ah within a year I was promoted to a senior project manager and then a senior manager.

John: The most stand out memorable moment I have is coming to work, um, within an organization that really, um, appreciates, understands and values the contributions that I make.

Nick: A typical Comcast meeting can involve ah, whiteboard sessions where we, where we can hash out designs, um, sometimes discussing new products.

Chris: What I love about Comcast technology is that unlike some other companies our life's bread is our technology.

Kyle: It's always growing. There's always something new coming out.

Elisa: You get to see these things, um come to fruition and know that you had a piece in that. That you were part of that delivery and there's a great sense of satisfaction in that.

Bryan: The coolest thing about Comcast technology is, is how everything is coming together.

Tonya: We're never the same. We're always looking for new and exciting things.

Carrona: Just going to work and then coming home and turning on my TV and seeing things, that you know, that I helped become a part of.

John: At Comcast I power the dream

Ngoc: I power the dream

Mala: I power the dream

Tonya: I power the dream

Bryan: I power the dream

Chase: At Comcast I power the dream
